

Volunteering opportunities available

- Volunteering opportunities are available for interested people to learn small mammal bone identification with Dr Matthew McDowell.
 - Positions involve sorting and identification of Pleistocene/Holocene owl-roost deposits stored at the UTas Sandy Bay campus. Help contribute to our knowledge of pre-European mammalian distributions within Tasmania.
 - No time commitment required.

Contact Tessa Smith tessa.smith@utas.edu.au for more information.